

Read, Read, Read

Ten Tips on reading to your child

1. Start right away.
2. Aim for 30 minutes every day.
3. Split up the time if baby is bored or restless.
4. Make reading part of the bedtime routine.
5. Try books with catchy rhymes and colorful pictures.
6. Be expressive and make stories sound fun.
7. Ask questions about the story and point out familiar objects.
8. Don't rush through story time.
9. Find books at your library, plus thrift stores and yard sales.
10. Read aloud until your child is 10 years old.
