

A Summer Day on the Farm

The barn yard animals are all unhappy in the summer heat.

Neigh! I am So Hot, said the horse.

It's sweltering out. It's too hot to work in the field.

Me, too, said the sheep. My wool coat is so hot and heavy.

I am too hot, said the chicken, who is pecking and panting.

I'm all sweaty, squeals the pig. But I'm also hungry.

Moo-moo says the cow, Will it ever rain again?

The grass is all dried out.

Sheep: I need a break!

Horse: I wish it would cool off!

Chicken: My eggs need air conditioning!

Pig: I hate being sweaty!

Cow: But wait, guys! ... I think I feel a storm coming on!

Sheep: I'm listening... (for thunder)

Horse: Can you hear anything?

Chicken: Is the sky falling?

Pig: Uh oh, my food will get wet.

Cow: Yes, I saw lightening!

Sheep: Yay, I felt a raindrop!

Horse: I'm going back in the barn!

Chicken: I might fly the coop!

Pig: The trough is getting wet!

Cow: But the rain feels nice and cool!

Sheep: Let me duck, so my head doesn't get wet

Horse: Does anyone have an umbrella?

Chicken: Weren't we all born wearing a rain coat?

Pig: Everything is getting all muddy!

Cow: I don't like my feet getting dirty!

Sheep: I'm all wet! We all have to duck for cover!

Horse: But look up.. the sun is coming out!

Chicken: Yes, I see blue sky!

Pig: Is this a good thing?

Cow: The sun feels good.

Sheep: Now I'm too hot

Horse: It's too hot work in the field

Chicken: I'm too hot too.

Pig: I told you I don't like being sweaty

Cow: Hold on, it's going to rain again!

(repeat:)

Sheep: I'm listening... (for thunder)

Horse: Can you hear anything?

Chicken: Is the sky falling?

Pig: Uh oh, my food will get wet.

Cow: Yes, I saw lightening!

Sheep: Yay, I felt a raindrop!

Horse: I'm going back in the barn!

Chicken: I might fly the coop!

Pig: The trough is getting wet!

Cow: But the rain feels nice and cool!

Repeat the loop as needed.

Story by Cydney Weingart